Dedicated to Danni:

Life is sweet because of the friends we have made and the things which in common
we share;
we want to live on, not because
of ourselves,
but because of the ones who
would care.
It's living and doing for somebody else
on that all of life's splender depends,
and the joy of it all, when we
count it all up,
is found in the making of friends.

Memories that remind us of our past, our present, and even our future.
They light the corners of my mind, with all our ups and downs,
the good and the bad times.
What's too painful to remember, we would rather choose to forget.
No one likes remembering the things that so many times were learning experiences usually painful and sometimes hard to change.
Most of the time these little scars helped us for the better.
It's the laughter we will always remember, the good times along with the joyful, that helps to shape our futures lying ahead of us.
When ever we remember, all the love that was shared and spread,
to one and hopefully to all we meet.

Some day each one of us will ponder on:
How we are! Where we are!
and finally, The way we were.

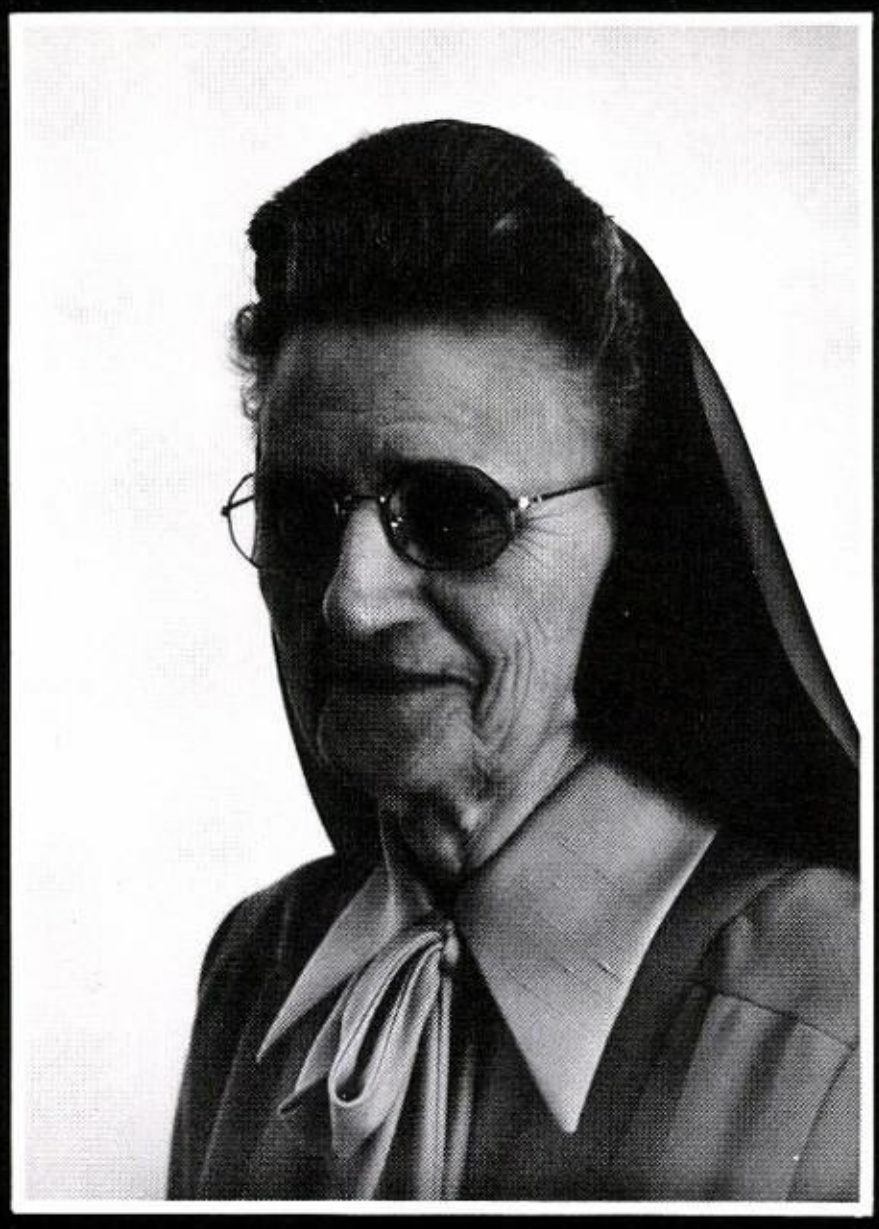
SUPPLEMENT



SISTER EYMARD

A friend left us for life in heaven. God called her home April 26.

A Rosebud

It is only a tiny rosebud
a flower of His design.
But I cannot unfold the petals with these clumsy hands of mine.

The secret of unfolding flowers is not known to such as I.
The rose God opens so sweetly in my hands would fade and die.

If I cannot unfold a rosebud,
this flower of God's design;
Then how can I think I have wisdom to unfold this life of mine?

So I trust in Him for His leading each moment of every day.
And I look to Him for guidance each step of the pilgrim way.

For the pathway that lies before me
my heavenly Father knows.
I'll trust Him to unfold the moments
just as He unfolds the rose.
